tel 01488 644 644

LADYBIRD publish a huge range of 'Learn to Read' books and materials for use at home.

www.ladybird.co.uk

The 'Key Words' books are based on research by J McNally and W Murray into the first 100 key words to literacy. These are useful to help dyslexic children recognise a bank of high frequency words.

The 'Read It Yourself' traditional folk tales is ideal for young dyslexic children who are beginning to develop reading skills. The books are graded in four levels, with six stories at each level. Each story is of manageable length, with clear type and colour illustrations to aid comprehension. Repetition of words and phrases helps to reinforce new vocabulary.

The Enormous Turnip	[level 1]	6:8
The Three Little Pigs	[level 2]	6:8
Rapunzel	[level 3]	7:0
Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs	[level 4]	7:4

Read with Ladybird is a simple structured reading programme of 20 books. Each contains several short stories and rhymes with controlled vocabulary.            Use At home

Highly recommended for struggling readers by Dyslexia Action

Reading age starts at 6:8 and goes up to 8:0

Mystery Tour	6: 6
The School Photograph	6:10
The Ghost House	7: 0

Phonics is a new range of fun storybooks designed to help children recognise the links between letters and sounds. Intended for use alongside the other reading programmes. Activity books available.
