

Positively Dyslexic

The Cornwall Dyslexia Association is looking for people who would be willing to share their positive experiences of dyslexia.

Good problem solving, determination, new ideas, creativity, entrepreneurialism, good social skills, Emotional Intelligence (in touch with your own feelings and those of others), are recognized as positive aspects of dyslexia.

The CDA is collecting a list of people in Cornwall who have dyslexia and are willing to share their achievements. We hope to be able to put on an exhibition to celebrate their success during 'Positively Dyslexic Days' around the county.

If you would be interested in being on this list, please complete the questionnaire overleaf and return to:

The Daisy Centre, 19A Kenwyn Street, Truro TR1 3BU.

Alternatively, please phone Sally on 01726 69336 to complete the questionnaire through a telephone interview.

Positively Dyslexic Questionnaire

1. How are you aware that you have dyslexia?

.....

2. How long have you known about your dyslexia?

.....

3. Are there any of your achievements you would be happy to share and celebrate through the Cornwall Dyslexia Association?

.....

.....

4. If so, please tick any of the following which apply:

I would be happy to display my achievements in a Positively Dyslexic exhibition (in the form of objects or a performance)

I would be happy to have photographs or video of my achievements on display in a Positively Dyslexic exhibition

I would be happy to have a short article describing my achievements on display in a Positively Dyslexic exhibition

I would be happy for my achievements to appear on the CDA website

5. nameage gender M/F

Email

Address

.....

Telephone number

Someone will contact you to discuss further details.

Thank you for your time.

Please return completed questionnaire to: The Daisi Centre, 19A Kenwyn Street, Truro TR1 3BU. Alternatively, please phone Sally on 01726 69336 to complete the questionnaire through a telephone interview.